dear mike

i've just sent you copies of my pix of grandmother and grandfather's graves north of seattle.

i know andy has also sent you similar ones, since it was hard for me to find them.

some of mother's ashes are now embedded in the soil beneath these signs.

However, most ashes were scattered in the mountains of washington by Anne, with the assistance of mother's long time hiking group and me.

have finally completed much of mother's probate.

the clipping mother kept of your acceptance at Annapolis has surfaced a couple of times, and is in an envelop with your name on it. I hope to send it to you relatively soon, but, as you know how disorganized i can be, I'm sure you're not holding your breath waiting for it.

Hope to be off for Cambridge University again on Sunday, flying on my 70th birthday.

back home april 26 or so, then a brief respite and what i hope is the last probate related trip to seattle in may.

hope all is well with you and yours

love,meg
